

Spud

All players are numbered consecutively. One player throws the ball high in the air and calls a number. The person with that number catches the ball and cries, "Spud." Other players have been running away, but must stop and stand still when catcher cries out. If person with number called catches the ball before it hits the ground, they may take three steps toward any other player. They then try to hit the player with the ball. If they do, the player receives an "S". If they miss, the thrower gets an "S". When a player receives S.P.U.D., they are out.
