

STUPENDOUS SUITCASE

For our junior high ministry we have a lot of games to get the kids warmed up, so I need a lot of prizes.

So I went to a thrift store and bought a cool, retro-looking suitcase, decorated it with fun stickers, and gave it a weird name. It's become sort of a mascot for the ministry. Then I fill it with dollar store toys, devotionals, used books, CDs, and other random stuff. You can get a surprising amount of stuff for under $25.

When someone wins a game, I give that person 10 seconds to comb through the case and grab something they want.
