

VOLLEYBALL DISCUSSION GROUPS

This game combines the fun of a volleyball game with some small group discussion. Divide into teams for a regular volleyball game. Then after every fifth (or so) point scored, have a row of players form a small group. The leader then throws out a discussion question like, "If you could go anywhere in the world, where would you go?" Each person gets a chance to speak, and then the leader gets the team going again. Since people are supposed to rotate after every volleyball point, the group will be different every time they get into small groups. It makes a great mixer.
