

Check off only those items which always or often apply to you:

1. I do not like to travel away from my home and family.
2. I find that my group of friends is extremely important to me.
3. When I am unlucky or when things keep going wrong, I blame something that I did and am being punished for.
4. My family is the central focus in my life right now.
5. Going steady for two weeks can be a very long time for me.
6. I like things settled right now; postponement is quite difficult to take.
7. Seniors should have privileges which freshpersons should not have.
8. I work better for rewards; threatened punishment just makes me angry.
9. I would like to join the military after graduation.
10. I believe that sacrifice is necessary, perhaps even essential in this life
11. Some people have power and should use it; some just do not have it.
12. Obedience to authority is ~~always~~ absolutely necessary.
13. There is no ultimate pleasure in this life.
14. Rules and regulations are essential to people living together; so are leaders.
15. Science has the answers to living the good life.
16. My life's work will be based on the amount of money I will receive for it.
17. My goal for my family is for them to live a comfortable, enjoyable life.
18. Children will learn later on to appreciate the comforts their parents now provide.
19. Being a citizen of one country is silly; we are citizens of the world.
20. We should eat less meat and use less energy because part of the world is starving.
21. I wish to work in some area where I can be of service to mankind.
22. I like to work in groups with other people.
23. I will take a job where good, harmonious relations with fellow workers are possible.
24. Independence, the ability to work as I wish is my main consideration in choosing my life's work.
25. I am not competitive and do not like to compete.
26. I am not motivated by punishment, nor will I work for a reward.
27. I will not cooperate if forced to do something that is stupid.