

Where were you living between the ages of seven and twelve and what were the winters like then?

How was your home heated during that time?

What was the center of warmth in your life when you were a child? (It could be a place in the house, a time of year, a person, etc.)

When did God become a "warm" person to you ... and how did it happen?