

PRAYER BAG

Supply the kids with magazines and brown paper bags. Ask each young person to search through the magazines for pictures or words that represent things they have prayed about. They can include things they have been thankful for as well as items they have asked for. After everyone has finished, divide into small groups and have each person share their prayer bags. End the sharing time by having the groups pray for each other.