

Some Important Questions

If you were about to die, what would you like your last meal to be?

What's more important to you- to be seen as good-looking, smart, nice, sexy, funny or creative?

have you ever kissed somebody famous?

If you could live your fantasy for a year, but you would have no memory of it and you lost that year of your life, would you do it?

How often do you change your sheets?

Do you eat food after it has fallen on the floor?

How often do you brush or floss your teeth?

How would you describe your intelligence: bright, street smart, genius, creative, book smart?

What time in history would you most like to live in?

Name the 7 dwarfs

Name Santa's reindeer

What is the best texture for food?

Something that really annoys you

What famous person do people say you look like?

Did you ever have goldfish die on you? If you could be in someone else's body for a day, but someone else could be in yours for a day- would you do it?

Whose body would you choose?

Who would you rather be? Santa, Tooth fairy, easter bunny, Grim reaper? Why?

What is the best feeling? The worst?

What would be the theme song of your life?

What is your biggest weakness?

Describe yourself in one word?

What cereal describes you?

What are you excellent at?

Would you be willing to go through an experience that would give you the greatest pain you have ever known, if it would be followed by the greatest pleasure you could ever imagine?

What is your favorite thing to talk about?

Would you rather be: poor, fat, ugly or mean?

Which super hero would you be?

Put these in order: family, lover, money, self, soul, career, friends

What is the secret to life?