

Twenty (Sharing) Questions (Part 3)

These sharing questions should be used for groups that have been together for several months. Take turns answering these questions and discussing your answers. Since your group can come back to these questions many times, check the box once a question has been discussed.

- 1. What do you like most about yourself?
- 2. What one blessing have you received from this group?
- 3. Has there been a situation recently where you were instrumental in the growth of another person? What did you do?
- 4. If you could wave a magic wand and make your job or marriage or church or family perfect, how would it be different than it is now? What is one thing you could do this week to move toward those changes?
- 5. How could you make your Christian-life more meaningful and effective?
- 6. If you could live a year of your life over again, which year would you choose? Why?
- 7. What is one frustration you've had with this group?
- 8. If given a choice, how would you choose to die? How do you not want to die?
- 9. If you were to describe yourself as a flavor, what would your flavor be?
- 10. Where do you go or what do you do when life gets too heavy? Why?
- 11. For what in your life are you most grateful?
- 12. What was your most embarrassing moment?
- 13. Share a memory of your grandmother or grandfather.
- 14. What qualities do you prize most in a friend?
- 15. In what way are you different from the way people usually see you?
- 16. If you knew you couldn't fail, what two things would you like to accomplish?
- 17. When was the first time you heard about Jesus? How did you respond?
- 18. When did God become more than just a word to you?
- 19. What three things do you like/dislike about your father?
- 20. What three things do you like/dislike about your mother?