
▼△▼

Youth Survey

After each statement given below, place a check mark beside the response that best represents what you think about the statement.

1. The youth of today are more independent and self-reliant than ever before.
 agree strongly agree disagree disagree strongly
2. Young people are no longer content to accept religion just because parents or teachers tell them that they should.
 agree strongly agree disagree disagree strongly
3. Youth today are less religious but more spiritual than ever.
 agree strongly agree disagree disagree strongly
4. One of the great virtues of young people is their willingness to accept the values of their parents and society.
 agree strongly agree disagree disagree strongly
5. The desire for freedom on the part of young people is unrealistic because they are still dependent on their parents for so much of what they need.
 agree strongly agree disagree disagree strongly
6. Adults tend to be unsympathetic toward youth and their search for freedom.
 agree strongly agree disagree disagree strongly
7. Structured religion not only doesn't relate but never can relate to youth and their needs.
 agree strongly agree disagree disagree strongly
8. Many young people do not believe in God.
 agree strongly agree disagree disagree strongly
9. Complete the statement: The greatest thing religion can offer youth today is . . .