

TEENAGE ARTICLES

After a big trip, retreat, camp experience, and so on, I have one or two of the teenagers write an article about the event. Then I put the article—along with some pictures—into the church's newsletter. Adults enjoy seeing things from the youth perspective, the teenagers are empowered by the experience, and it's one less newsletter article I have to write.