

Here are six effective active listening qualities that will help you and hear:

- Be genuinely interested in teenagers and their stories.
- Look people in the eyes.
- Realize you don't have all the right answers.
- Acknowledge emotions and feelings.
- Display a nonjudgmental attitude.
- Follow up with people after a conversation.