

Having called his men, Jesus made a practice of being with them....When one stops to think of it, this was an incredibly simple way of doing it. Jesus had no formal school, no seminaries, no outlined course of study, no periodic membership classes in which he enrolled his followers. None of these highly organized procedures....As amazing as it may seem, all Jesus did to teach these men his ways was to draw them close to himself.

—Robert Coleman

The Master Plan of Evangelism

