

HAVE YOU SEEN...?

When a teenager misses church for a few weeks, it's easy to send a note or a postcard—so we decided to get creative.

Now we take that person's picture and Photoshop it onto a side of a milk carton and print out a postcard that reads, "MISSING—Have you seen [name]? Last seen at youth group."

The teenagers love the cards, and we often have kids return after we send them out. One guy even said he hung the card up on his wall.
