

What's your reaction to revenge sites? Why are they thriving on the Internet? What might motivate customers to pay for such services? Do these revenge tactics go beyond what an offender probably deserves? Why or why not? What consequences—either intended or unintended—might result from using a revenge service?

What would it be like to have someone mess up your life so thoroughly? When someone hurts you, is your first instinct to plan immediate revenge, to offer immediate forgiveness, or something in between? Explain. Is revenge ever appropriate? If so, explain. Can revenge ever be an effective way to change a foe's negative behavior or heart? Explain. What effects does a vengeful spirit have on someone's life and faith?

Are you able to leave revenge up to God? Why or why not? Does God take revenge on our behalf? If so, does he do it on earth or wait until Judgment Day? Explain. How can God be both loving and vengeful? Is it ever okay to ask God to take revenge against a specific person? Why or why not? Have you ever prayed for an enemy's well-being? If so, what