

FIGHTING

My Dear Child,

Conflict is a normal part of human life.

As long as you live you will have conflicts.

It's what you do with it that matters.

Do you fight fair?

Pray for my peace to know what is the right way for you to handle a situation.

My guidance will always be there for you to show you a way to deal with things where love and respect are shown.

Love always
