

1. Are there different types of love.
2. How do you show these different types of love.
3. What are those different types of love.
4. Do you feel your love for god is different for your love for anything else.
5. Does bringing god into any type of love change that love.