

All that we love deeply becomes a part of us.

HELEN KELLER

Some day, after we have mastered the winds, the tides, and gravity, we will harness for God the energies of love; and then for the second time in the history of the world man will have discovered fire!

SOCIAL INQUIRY

Lord, why did you tell me to love all men, my brothers?
I have tried, but I come back to you, frightened. . . .

You have forced me to open my door.
Like a squall of rain in the face, the cry of men has awakened me.
Outside, men were lying in wait for me.
I did not know they were so near; in this house,
in this street, in this office;
my neighbor, my colleague, my friend.
As soon as I started to open the door I saw them,
with outstretched hands, anxious eyes,
longing hearts, like beggars on Church steps. . . .

Don't worry, God says, you have gained all.
While men came in to you,
I, your father,
I, your God,
Slipped in among them.

ENOUGH LOVE

There is no difficulty that enough love will not conquer.
No disease that enough love will not
heal;
No door that enough love will not open;
No gulf that enough love will not bridge;
No wall that enough love will not throw down;
No sin that enough love will not redeem;

It makes no difference how deeply seated
may be the trouble,
How hopeless the outlook,
How muddled the tangle,
How great the mistake; a sufficient realization of love will dissolve it all . . . if only you could love enough you would be the happiest and most powerful being in the world.
