

A Psalm of love

I love you O God with all my heart and with my whole being.
I am wide open to love and to be loved, because you have first loved me.

Every day I seek to share that love as I touch the lives of others.
Every day I see and receive that love as others reach out to me

Teach me to serve you generously as a sign of love transcending.
Your love is with me in the silence of mourning,
and in my joy a sign of the surprise of resurrected hope.
Love grows stronger as it spreads by living the love that never dies.
