

■ WORKING HARD OR HARDLY WORKING

Paul had to cup his hand to hide his paper from Danny, who sat on Paul's left. Mr. Young had a vocabulary quiz each Friday, and every Friday Danny cheated from Paul's paper. Paul didn't think it was fair to have to work so hard in the class when Danny, with very little effort, received the same grades by cheating. So this week Paul hid his paper by cupping his hand. Unfortunately, Mr. Young noticed Paul behaving strangely and thought that Paul was cheating. He embarrassed Paul in front of the class by asking what was hidden in his cupped hand.

- ▶ What should Paul do?
- ▶ What if Danny were his best friend?
- ▶ What if Paul had cheated a couple of times himself by looking at someone else's paper?
- ▶ What if Danny was the first-string quarterback and needed to do well in this class to continue playing football?
