

“Young Romans! I repeat to you what I said to you at Tor Vergata, during the World Youth Day of 2000: If one of you feels in himself the call of the Lord to give himself totally to him, to love him with an undivided heart, do not allow yourself to be restrained by doubt or by fear,” the Pope continued. “Say with courage your own Yes without reserve, trusting yourself to him who is faithful in all his promises.”