

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

This idea uses traffic signs as symbols of faith in Christ and can initiate good discussion. Collect several highway and traffic signs, either packaged or made by the kids themselves, and place these on the walls. Have kids choose a sign that best describes their own lives as Christians and to explain their choices. Discuss each of the signs and their relationship to Christianity with the group.

Here are a few examples:

An ideal time for this discussion would be during summer or Christmas breaks or when the group is about to embark on a trip or retreat. Road signs would then take on new meaning. Other signs include:

